Accra, Ghana.

Dear Visa Officer,

MOTIVATION FOR APPLYING FOR A VISITOR'S VISA

I am writing to respectfully request a visa to attend the American Society of Tropical Medicine and Hygiene (ASTMH) Annual Meeting, scheduled for November 9-13, 2025, at the Metro Toronto Convention Centre, Toronto, Ontario, Canada. This 5-day meeting brings together researchers, professors, public health officials, government representatives, military personnel, travel medicine specialists, and practicing physicians to share research findings and expertise in addressing global health challenges.

I am currently a PhD student in Epidemiology at the University of Basel, Switzerland, affiliated with the Swiss Tropical and Public Health Institute (Swiss TPH). My PhD follows the “sandwich model,” which allows me to conduct part of my research in my home country, Ghana. Earlier this year, I spent several months in Switzerland working on the first objective of my PhD, the results of which I will be presenting at the ASTMH conference in Toronto. I am presently in Ghana to continue my research and will return to Switzerland in February 2026; therefore, I am applying for this visa from Ghana.

My research, titled “Uncertainty Quantification of Agent-based Models with Application to Malaria Intervention Modeling,” focuses on improving the understanding of malaria transmission dynamics and guiding effective intervention strategies. These insights are crucial in the fight against malaria in sub-Saharan Africa.

During my master’s studies at Stellenbosch University in South Africa, I had the privilege of attending an international infectious disease conference (Epidemics) in South Carolina, United States, where I presented a project “Modeling Vaccine Delivery Strategies for Rabies Elimination in Rural Western Kenya.” That experience allowed me to engage with senior disease modelers whose mentorship and influence played a key role in shaping my current PhD path. I believe the upcoming meeting in Canada presents a similar opportunity to advance my research and career while contributing to the global health community.

My previous academic travels, as detailed in the Schedule_1 form, have greatly enriched my professional development. I have always complied fully with visa regulations and returned to Ghana after completing each program or training. This demonstrates my commitment to respecting the terms of all granted stays.

My institution has already booked my flights and accommodation for the conference period, ensuring that my travel plans are well arranged. In addition, I intend to visit a close friend (Emmanuella Seyram Avornyoh) for one day after the conference before returning to Ghana.

I therefore kindly request your assistance in granting me a visa to participate in this important conference. Attending will allow me to present my research to the world's largest gathering of tropical medicine and global health professionals, foster academic collaboration, and strengthen research partnerships between Ghana, Switzerland, and the global community.

Thank you very much for considering my application. I would be happy to provide any further information or documentation to support my request.

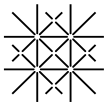

Yours sincerely,

Zenabu Suboi.

Admission to a doctoral program – spring semester 2024

Dear Ms. Suboi

We have reviewed your application for admission, and are pleased to inform you that you have been admitted to the following doctoral program:

Doctoral Studies - Faculty of Science
Epidemiology

In the next few days, you will be sent an invoice for your tuition fees by e-mail. In order for us to be able to matriculate you and register you for the spring semester 2024 in absentia, the following conditions must be met:

- Payment of the tuition fees by the deadline specified on the invoice
- A postal address in an EU/EFTA country (to ensure delivery of documents by post)
Please notify us of any change of address at www.unibas.ch/studseksupportEN.

Once your matriculation is complete you will receive your confirmations of matriculation and additional information (course registration etc.) by post as well as the UNICard in a separate letter. Additionally, you will then receive a letter from the IT Services via the application portal (publicservices.unibas.ch) with details for setting up the university e-mail account.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact the Student Administration Office (<http://www.unibas.ch/studseksupportEN>).

Kind regards,

Emanuel Szadrowsky
Head of the Student Administration Office

REGULATION FOR Swiss TPH PhD students

Sandwich Model

1. Surname/first name: SUBOI Zenabu
2. Start: December 2023
3. Duration: min. 3 years
4. Training institution: Swiss TPH
5. Supervisor: Prof. Dr. Christian Lengeler
Dr. Emilie Pothin
Dr. Christian Selinger
6. General: The scholarship does not establish an employment relationship. The scholarship shall cover the living expenses and education costs of the scholarship holder/PhD student as stated below. The purpose of the scholarship is the education of the scholarship holder.

Any misappropriation will result in the immediate termination of the scholarship and legal consequences.
7. PhD regulations: As a PhD student of the University Basel, supervised by a researcher at Swiss TPH, all rules and regulations of the University Basel and the respective faculty apply. It is the duty of the PhD student to know these rules and to comply with all regulations.
8. Compensation: The compensation is financed by a Swiss TPH scholarship funded by a project from the supervisor. Payments are made by Swiss TPH.

The current amount is: CHF 2450 per month (ie for the time spent in Switzerland and abroad).

The scholarship amount will be paid in advance for the coming month into an account with the Swiss Post Office, a Swiss bank or a bank account worldwide, as requested by the scholarship holder.

Apart from this stipend, the supervisor also covers health/insurance (CHF 150 per month) for the time spent in Switzerland and semester fees (CHF 370 per semester).
9. Vacation: Vacations are planned with the agreement of the supervisor. The maximum allowance is 25 working days per year.

10. Termination: The termination of the PhD studies prior to the end of this regulation must be agreed with the supervisor. Premature termination may result in the immediate (pro rata) termination of the stipend.
11. Public holidays: Public holidays as determined by Swiss TPH apply to all scholarship holders, including fellowship holders of the canton Basel-Land.
12. Health and accident Insurance: It is mandatory by Swiss law to have a health insurance when being in Switzerland. It is the student's responsibility to know his/her insurance plan, to have a valid insurance coverage (Swisscare) and to inform the PhD Office of any expiry of coverage.

Further it is mandatory to fill in an exemption form and submit it to the Swiss authorities ("Common Institution KVG"). Students are obliged to submit the invoices for medical treatments to Swisscare for reimbursement

13. Professional secrecy: The fellowship holder undertakes all necessary measures to make sure that all professional transactions or material, especially patient data, which she or he encounters during the training, are kept fully confidential, regardless of how this information is obtained. This stipulation remains valid beyond the duration of this contract. Violation of data confidentiality may result in legal actions, including possible termination of fellowship.
14. Copyright: Software copyright law Art. 19 §3 and 4: the fellowship holder may only work with the computer programmes provided by the Swiss TPH and with other licensed programmes required for her/his studies. Violation of copyright entails the risk of legal proceedings, including the possible termination of the fellowship.
15. University enrolment and authorizations: All formalities and institutional matters, including the procurement for foreign fellowship holders of residence permits or permits for crossing the border will be co-ordinated by the Swiss TPH PhD Office. It is the fellowship holder's responsibility to inform the Swiss TPH PhD office well in advance about his/her travel schedule. Depending on the country of origin, the visa may take up to 8 weeks. The fellowship holder is obliged to follow the instructions of the Swiss TPH PhD office.
16. Fellowship holder file: This will be maintained by the Swiss TPH PhD Office. The fellowship holder must inform the Swiss TPH PhD Office promptly of all relevant changes, especially changes of address, civil or visa status and departure date. The fellowship holder is further responsible to inform the Swiss TPH PhD office about prolongation or early termination of the stay.
17. Access to the Swiss TPH: On the first day of the course, the fellowship holder will be given a badge.
18. Code of conduct: The code of conduct in the handbook for employees (pages 11 – 20) apply to all students.

<https://intranet.swisstph.ch/en/aoc/human-resources/>

19. Travel requirements: It is mandatory for every fellowship holder to do the security training test prior to the first travel outside of Switzerland and to adhere to all Swiss TPH safety and security rules. <https://training.dss.un.org/thematicarea/category?id=6>
20. Safety test: A Swiss TPH safety test has to be completed when you start your PhD studies and is made available to you via our eLearning platform.

ELECTRONIC TRAVEL AUTHORIZATION (eTA) TO TRAVEL TO CANADA

The Government of Canada has introduced a new entry requirement, known as an Electronic Travel Authorization (eTA), that applies to visa-exempt foreign nationals* travelling to or transiting Canada by air.

Effective November 10, 2016, visa-exempt foreign nationals must have an eTA before they can board a flight to Canada. To complete your application for an eTA, you will need your passport, a credit card and an email address.

Among those exempted from this new requirement are U.S. citizens and travellers with a valid visa. As well, entry requirements for travellers arriving by land or sea have not changed.

To see if the citizens of your country need an eTA or to apply for one, visit the Government of Canada's Electronic Travel Authorization

If you are denied boarding or your baggage is lost or damaged, you may be entitled to certain standards of treatment and compensation under the Air Passenger Protection Regulations. For more information about your passenger rights please contact your air carrier or visit the Canadian Transportation Agency's website.

Dear Emmanuella:

This letter will confirm an offer of casual employment with the University of Toronto in the Dalla Lana School of Public Health reporting to Assistant Professor Victoria Arrandale. Your employment will be extended from August 16, 2025 and end no later than December 31, 2025. Your casual employment may be terminated earlier than the end date at the sole discretion of the University upon providing you with notice of termination in accordance with Ontario's Employment Standards Act, 2000. Your employment may be terminated immediately without notice for cause.

The law requires the Employment Standards Act Poster to be provided to all employees; it can be found on <http://www.labour.gov.on.ca/english/es/pubs/poster.php>. This poster describes the minimum rights and obligations contained in the Employment Standards Act. Please note that in many respects this offer of employment exceeds the minimum requirements set out in the Act.

Please read the enclosed documents and if you have any questions concerning this offer of employment, please feel free to contact Rikki Hensel, HR Consultant, at rikki.hensel@utoronto.ca.

You may accept this offer by signing the duplicate copy of this letter and returning it to timesheet.dlsph@utoronto.ca.

Sincerely,

Victoria Arrandale
Assistant Professor & Principal Investigator

I have read, understood and accept the offer of employment on the terms set out above.
